World Junior Golf Championships qualifier coming to San Lameer this August

The World Junior Golf Championships qualifier - The Junior Africa Challenge - will take place between 29th August – 1st September 2016 alongside the Dunbar Cup on the 2nd September at San Lameer Country Club, the home of SA Women's Open. This is a sanctioned US Kids Golf Event and the tournament is for kids aged 6 to 18 years. It is also a qualifier for the World Junior Championships which are held in the USA in August of every year.

According to Andrew Weir, Chairman of SA Kids Golf, their organization arranges monthly tournaments around South Africa, and this is one of the key events. It has already received 110 entries, and is expected to see no less than 130 entries. Supersport have confirmed that they will be at the final round of the event and prize giving which will take place on 1st September.

Some big name sponsors are behind this event including The Mark McNulty Junior Golf Foundation; Srixon SA; MotoXpress; Goldwagen and ABI. Ugu South Coast Tourism will further be supporting this internationally recognized event alongside key VIP's such as Karen Olivant, President Women's Golf SA, Jason Bird, PGA of SA Regional Chairman, Ivan Curlewis, Deputy President KZN Golf Union and Joy Crutchfield, Chairperson of Ugu South Coast Tourism.

Mr Justin Mackrory, CEO of Ugu South Coast Tourism comments 'It is great that an event of this nature has selected our wonderful golf destination as the venue for the qualifier. The young golfers will really enjoy the challenge at San Lameer and as their passion for golf grows so will their desire to return and play any of our 11 stunning golf courses on the South Coast.

Another key supporter is airline CemAir, offering 5% discounts when using the booking code JAC2016, for participants and spectators wanting to fly between OR Tambo in Johannesburg and Margate.
